Of Missing Men

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Ninety-five American seamen—seven officers and 88 crew members—were believed lost somewhere in the icy waters of the north Atlantic today as a result of the torpedoing and sinking of the U. S. S. destroyer Reuben James while on convoy duty west of Iceland last Thursday night.

Word was flashed to the navy department that of the 142 man crew of the ill-fated ship—first American naval loss in World War No. 2—only 45 were rescued alive.

One seaman was picked up dead and another died soon after from serious injuries. Of those alive eight are injured.

Little Hope For 95
A terse announcement by the navy said that "little hope" is held for the rescue of those "who have not been accounted for."

It had been previously stated after the destroyer was sent to the bottom, presumably by a German submarine.

PA NEW OBSERVES

There was a beautiful moon last night, and the sky was clear up to 11 o'clock this morning, when the fog commenced gathering, which by 7, became very dense on the east side, it being hard to distinguish persons across the street. This condition was somewhat improved by 8 o'clock.

A north hill woman reports that she picked a cluster of her ramblers this morning, which has seven buds, and one rose in full bloom on it. If this keeps up, we'll have May in December.

Charles Kirkwood of Rigby shot rabbits and a pheasant the first day of the hunting season.

A new informant that about yesterday, a pedestrian was taking up East Washington near Epworth street, wearing a hat. Evidently the mild weather confused him on the season.

His election day. You still have time to vote. The polls do not close until 8 o'clock.

One beneficiary of Halloween was noted on a North Hill street yesterday. It was a squirrel. The little animal was moving along the sidewalk picking up grains of corn that had been thrown by some hallowe'en merry-makers. The squirrel was not eating them, but was carrying them off for winter storage.

Pa New is informed that a beautiful ring neck pheasant was noticed prancing around a station this morning. Probably sticking inside the city limits in order to evade the hunters.

Many persons heard the two-motored medium bomber that was flying.

Arming Merchant Ships And Repeal Of Combat Zone Provisions Seen

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The epochal senate battle over repeal of major neutrality act restrictions on shipping today moved swiftly toward a climax on a crescendo of war talk, with administration leaders apparently sure of victory by a fairly narrow margin.

Sen. Connally (D) Texas, plain-speaking chairman of the foreign relations committee, drove hard for a final vote tomorrow. Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, a foe of the bill, agreed that the decision may come by tomorrow night.

Encouraged by the dramatic speech of Sen. Maloney (D) Conn. who broke with administration leaders and announced his opposition to repeal of combat zone provisions of the neutrality act, opposition leaders hoped to stage an upset by confining the bill to armament of ships.

Senate polls, however, supported Connally's claim that the fight "is in the bag." A conservative poll (Continued On Page Two)

Voters Are Slow Going To Polls

Big Rush To Cast Ballots Is Expected To Come Later In Day

EIGHTH WARD VOTERS GET OUT

Prognostications of a light vote on this election day seem to have been correct if the total vote cast at noon today is any criterion of what is to follow this afternoon. In most of the precincts the total was around 50 to 75 at noon, save in the eighth ward where a heavy vote is being turned out due to a battle for the aldermanship of the ward.

Weather conditions were good, although an overcast sky looked as though rain were not far off. Around the polls are the usual scenes, workers, candidates, voters, hangers-on, but in smaller numbers than usual.

Important Election
The fact that this is an important election seems to have made little impression upon the voters at large. A judge is to be elected, two appellate court judges are to be elected, a sheriff, a district attorney, a register and recorder, two jury commissioners, a county surveyor, two city councilmen, a city comptroller and three members of the school board.

Part of the reason for the light vote this morning is the fact that people are working well. When the men and women in the mills and factories get through their work this afternoon a rush will probably ensue, which seems to be a good reason why those who can vote earlier in the day should do so.

Judges W. Walter Braham and Charles Matthews, Jr., are alternating in the court house today one or the other being on duty all day. Judge Braham opened his court at seven this morning and later in the day Judge Matthews relieved him. They are sitting to settle any election disputes which may arise.

Yugoslav Guerillas Have Taken Valjevo

(International News Service)
LONDON, Nov. 4.—Pierce Yugoslav guerilla fighters have captured Valjevo, 50 miles southwest of Belgrade, the Moscow radio reported today, adding that 700 Germans were taken prisoner.

A broadcast picked up in London said the Germans thereafter dived-bombed Valjevo without avail.

Thirty thousand more guerillas operating in the mountainous wild Drina region were declared to have captured sufficient arms and equipment to "outfit a modern regular army."

In retaliation, said the Moscow announcer, "the Germans burned down 16 villages and killed the inhabitants."

CAR LEAVES ROAD AT FOOT OF HILL

Two men died late Tuesday afternoon when a coupe, in which they were en route from New Castle to Knox (Clarion county), Pa., left the road part way down the Harlansburg hill and crash into a cement culvert in front of McClelland's funeral home, about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The driver, J. H. Mong, aged 68 years, of Knox, was instantly killed, while his companion, Boyd Furlong, aged 64 years of R. P. D. No. 2, Knox, died en route to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where he was being taken in an ambulance.

Were Here On Visit

Mong and Furlong had come here to visit Mr. Furlong's daughter, Mrs. Ruby O'Loughlin, of 838 East Lutton street, state motor police and Corporal T. F. Nugent were informed. They were not well acquainted with the highways, and decided they would wait until yesterday before returning.

Just what caused the accident is not known. No person saw the crash, but Harlansburg residents were attracted to the scene by the noise.

Mong was employed as an oil well tender, while Furlong worked on a farm near Knox.

The body of Mr. Mong, removed to the Jos. S. Rice Co. chapel, was taken last night to a Knox funeral home.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 4.

Several million voters went to the polls today in Pennsylvania to cast their ballots for state, county and local officials after the close of an unexciting off-year election campaign overshadowed by the war and national defense.

From 60 to 65 per cent of the state's 5,000,000 registered voters were expected to cast their ballots at the polls, which remained open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m., despite the slim turnout expected, political leaders hoped to obtain some indication from the vote of the possible trend of next year's important state gubernatorial and legislative elections.

G. O. P. Has An Advantage

Unofficial statewide registration totals gave the Republicans an advantage of nearly one-half million votes over the Democrats.

At only two statewide offices were at stake, the 21-year post now held by Supreme Court Justice William M. Parker, of Oil City, and the 10-year position occupied by Superior Court Judge Charles E. Kenworthy of Ardmore. The Republican incumbents, who are serving part-time terms which expire in January, completed their campaigns Saturday. The Democratic candidate (Continued On Page Two)

Prime Minister Curtin Says Australia And Britain Discuss Axis Powers

(International News Service)

This remark was interpreted as an indirect reference to Japan and the current crisis in the Pacific.

British Make Latest Charges

Assert French Sloop Tries Scuttling When Intercepted By British

BRITISH BLOCK ATTEMPT HOWEVER

BULLETIN
(International News Service)
LONDON, Nov. 4.—The British admiralty accused France of trying to "run contraband for the Germans" today and announced French merchant vessels conveyed by a French sloop tried unsuccessfully to scuttle themselves when intercepted by British warships off south Africa.

The admiralty charged that the Vichy government "recently has been attempting to run contraband for the Germans from the east to France in escorted convoys."

Intercept Convey
"Our patrols," said the British communiqué, "sighted one convoy and the necessary forces were sent to intercept it."

"The escorting sloop was requested to direct the convey to a port to be examined in accordance with belligerent rights."

"This request was refused and steps were taken to board the ships, upon which three out of five made a determined attempt to scuttle themselves."

"The action was frustrated."

"The attempt was made only in compliance with instructions which the Germans are known to have given French ships rather than allow search to be carried out."

"Guilty cargoes have been disclosed and the operation is proceeding."

dates, Judge W. Russell Carr, of Uniontown, for Supreme Court, and Judge Michael A. Musmanno, of Pittsburgh, for Superior Court, finished their campaign yesterday.

The 15th congressional district where a special election is being held to fill the unexpired term of the late Albert G. Rutherford, was being watched for a possible indication of the trend of next year's national election for congress. The Republican candidate, state assemblyman Wilson D. Gillette, of Towanda, was a strong favorite over his Democratic opponent, District Attorney George O. Wagner, of Danville, in a district which is normally heavily Republican.

Many Local Elections
In addition to the two appellate court judges, voters cast their ballots for 68 county and municipal judges. There were contests in 29 counties for common pleas judges, 12 counties were electing associate judges, six counties orphans court judges and Philadelphia a municipal judge. Pennsylvania's only woman jurist, Sara M. Soffel, sought re-election to the Allegheny county court.

Hot majority campaign featured the election in Pittsburgh, Scranton and 21 third class cities. Numerous judges of election and inspectors of election, approximately 25,000 in all, were also being chosen in boroughs and cities, while in many counties the voters cast their ballots for sheriffs, probate judges, clerks of courts, coroners, district attorneys, registers and records, controllers and treasurers.

Other elective posts being filled were those for city councilmen, school directors, jury commissioners, aldermen, burgesses, tax collectors, auditors, justices of the peace, township supervisors and assessors.

Sunday movies will be voted on by the electors of York and 14 rural communities, none of which permit sabbath shows at the present time. The small number of places voting on the question was attributed by the Rev. Dr. William B. Forney, Philadelphia, general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance of Pennsylvania, to the higher number of petitioners required for the referendum.

Under an amendment to the act of 1935, the number was increased from five to 20 per cent. of the highest number of votes cast for any candidate in the last election.

The navy's announcement broke a three day silence on the crew's fate. A radio "blackout" was in effect over the Atlantic to prevent further enemy sub-surface craft and airplanes from learning the whereabouts of the convoy. Apparently the convoy has now reached an undisclosed port.

Navy Statement
The navy's statement said: "The navy department announced additional information tonight regarding survivors of the torpedo attack on the U. S. S. Reuben James, destroyer, which was sunk the night of October 30-31, 1941."

"Of the crew of 142 officers and men, one body was recovered, one man died shortly after being rescued, eight were injured and 37 men were uninjured."

"The navy department holds little hope for rescue of the seven officers and 88 men who have not been accounted for."

The Reuben James was the third American warship to be fired at in the present conflict. A submarine unleashed torpedoes at the U. S. S. destroyer Greer September 4, but they went wide.

On the night of October 16-17 the destroyer Kearny was hit by a torpedo amidships when it engaged a group of German U-boats attacking a U. S. convoy, resulting in the death of 11 men. The Kearny was able to limp to an undisclosed port under her own power.

command, Soviet bombers inflicted "great losses" on German forces.

Soviet front line claimed virtually complete recapture of Kalinin, key railway city on the northwestern rim of the Moscow defense arc, and the slaying of 5,000 German officers and men there.

Mighty Reinforcements
Likewise, these reports stated, both the Russians and Germans were rapidly assembling mighty reinforcements in troops and material for an immense and perhaps decisive battle over Moscow.

A new war communiqué issued at noon said merely that there was "fighting throughout the night on all fronts."

A supplementary war bulletin said that on the southern front yesterday three enemy battalions were annihilated and 20 tanks destroyed.

On the Karelian front, a Soviet unit penetrated the enemy rear lines and annihilated two Finnish companies, the bulletin said.

In the Crimea, it was admitted, the great naval base of Sevastopol was in growing danger as was the sea of Azov, port of Kerch, gateway to the Caucasus.

In the Donets Basin, strategic industrial area, the Nazi drive was reported slowed down and definitely halted in the area west of Rostov.

The high command war bulletin credited Russian planes operating over the central and southern fronts with destroying 30 German tanks, 280 trucks loaded with war material and "numerous" armored cars and field guns.

A Moscow radio broadcast claimed the German had suffered 70,000 casualties, including 20,000 dead and 50,000 wounded, in the Voloklamsk, Moshalsk and Maloyaroslavets regions of the Moscow front between October 12 and 31.

South of Moscow on the battle front near Tula, the radio announcer said, the fields are "strewn with German dead."

German artillery batteries were reported shelling Tula heavily and both sides were declared to be reinforcing their lines preparatory to a decisive battle.

Heaviest Fighting of War

Kubyshev, U. S. S. R., Nov. 4.—The heaviest fighting of the entire Russian war raged in the unbounded fury on the southern front today as Soviet troops and marines battled to stem the Nazi tide in the Crimea.

Both sides were reported suffering heavy casualties as the battle ebbed and flowed, with some positions changing hands several times in the space of a few hours.

Meanwhile, new Russian successes were reported on the Moscow front by the Tass (Russian) news agency, which said several Nazi attacks on the Voloklamsk sector were repulsed.

Finnish reports from Helsinki to Gothenburg, Sweden, said the Russians were in full retreat on the extreme northern front and that Finnish forces were nearing the Murmansk railway and the Stalin canal. The Finns also were reported to have captured Bjorkoe island in the gulf of Finland.

The Germans were reported using hundreds of dive bombers against Russian defensive positions.

mated to the United States that it is disposed to grant Moscow's request for a declaration of war against the Soviet Union.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull's warning to Finland to withdraw from the war or risk the loss of American friendship was intended as a final effort to bring about a separate Russo-Finnish peace before Britain declares war on the Finns.

He said this government is awaiting a reply from Helsinki to the Soviet peace offer. Unless the reply is received promptly, officials in Washington believe Britain will formally declare war on Finland, and in such an event the little northern country is expected to find the going tough at the peace conference if Germany is defeated.

NEUTRALITY ACT BATTLE NEARING SENATE CLIMAX

showed 50 votes for the bill—one more than a majority—with the administration total likely to be slightly larger. The same poll showed 34 definitely against the bill, with the total opposition vote likely to reach 40 to 43.

Conceding that the senate would vote to arm merchant ships, opposition leaders refused to admit that the senate also will authorize sending merchantmen into British ports.

"I think some doubtful votes will swing our way, and you may be surprised at the result," said Taft.

Sens. Lucas (D) Ill.; Bilbo (D) Miss.; Lodge (R) Mass.; Clark (D) Idaho, and Wheeler (D) Mont., were scheduled to speak in the senate today. Lodge said that he would announce his position on the bill, for the first time publicly, in his speech.

War Next Step

Maloney, who told the senate that he had prayed for guidance in deciding his vote, warned his colleagues that if the bill passes, war may be the next step.

"As I see this proposal, it leaves nothing but that we should be prepared a little later to vote for war," he said.

Administration leaders sought to combat the effort of non-interventionists to drive home their argument that the bill means war. Connelly declared that issue is solely one of freedom of the seas.

"The seas do not belong to Hitler—they belong to all nations of the world," he said. "And we must defend our right to use them."

Sen. Hughes (D) Del., returned to the senate with an announcement that he will support the bill.

"Not Going to War"

"Whatever steps are necessary to make our aid to enemies of Hitler must be taken," he said. "We are not going to war, at least presently but we must help Great Britain, Russia and others resisting aggression. I do not see war now, but we all can imagine conditions so intolerable that no nation could stay out of the war."

Sen. Herring (D) Ia., returned from his home state declaring that public sentiment for the president's foreign policy is increasing. He said he would vote for arming of ships but declined to say whether he would support repeal of combat zone provisions.

Sen. Doney (D) Miss., whose colleague Sen. Bilbo, is against combat zone repeal, said that he still is non-committal.

"I'm listening and if my mind is made up I am not expressing it," he said.

Both administration supporters and foes of the bill were making every effort to win votes of several doubtful senators, including Sens. Byrd (D) Va., and Gerry (D) Rhode Island.

SLIPPERY ROCK PRESIDENT DIES

on August 1, 1940, after serving in Johnstown about 30 years.

State Head Notified

Harrisburg, Nov. 4.—State Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis B. Haas said today he was "shocked" to learn of the death of Dr. Dale McMaster, 55, president of Slippery Rock State Teachers college, at Slippery Rock.

Dr. Haas left for his office at the capitol—closed because of election day—shortly after he received the news from Dr. Clyde Green, superintendent of New Castle public schools and chairman of the college board of trustees.

Dr. Green in his telegram to Dr. Haas failed to indicate the cause of Dr. McMaster's death, according to the state official.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS R. W. OSTERMAYER SPEAK

R. W. Ostermayer, Clarion industrialist, who as mayor of that city instituted reforms, recreation centers and better government, was speaker before a large gathering of the Woman's club Monday afternoon in the Highland U. P. church.

President of the Pennsylvania Industrial Chemical corporation, Mr. Ostermayer presented management's view in the nation's effort to forge the sinews of war. Discussing the seriousness and rapidity with which national defense has become the order of the hour he said, "Industry will take care of its part of national defense. Preservation of freedoms of all kinds is the major stake in today's progress toward a nation geared for war. We are at war; we cannot retreat. The gift of freedom is the gift of God given us."

Woman's stake must be to turn from a passive position to an aggressive attitude. Paying them the tribute of being psychic, sensitive, of having the power of intuition and susceptibility to intangibles, he lauded them for their willingness to act. "Your stake now deals more with the future than with the present. You should make up your minds as to what you are trying to defend, and do it. Policies being formed today will dominate this country for the next 20 years."

Charging that indifference is the cause of loss of control in things legislative, the speaker urged the women to think the hardest job in the world, and to study government so that they might exercise their inherent right to preserve free enterprise and the "American way."

Ostermayer was introduced by Mrs. Robert A. Eckles.

Thirty to 40 past leader, Mrs. John G. Northcutt, was made by President Mrs. John E. Elliott as she displayed a handsomely carved kavel, the gift of Mrs. Northcutt, in use by club presidents since 1924.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

POOR READERS HATE SUBJECT

Teachers and parents are forever saying, "Sid does not get along in reading because he is not interested." From a practical point of view they have put the cart before the horse. They ought to learn to think and say, "Sid isn't interested in his reading because he does not get along well in it. He doesn't like reading because he reads poorly. His brother, Bill, likes reading very much because he reads very well. Pete Corbett, 7, is not a good reader. He doesn't like it. He listens well to stories which children 10 or 12 years of age read to him, and he constantly begs for them. When he succeeds in reading well alone, he will enjoy doing so. His parents' problem is to help him attain success in reading."

A mother said about her boys in the eighth grade: "Oh, if he were only interested in his school work! He hates reading. But if there is a tire to change, or something to be made, he will work his head off. Now, why doesn't he work just as hard at his studies?"

"Does he read well," I asked, "and does he read for pleasure?"

"No, indeed," rejoined the mother; "he never reads at all unless he has to. His brother reads exceptionally well and enjoys it, but doesn't care so much for the mechanical."

The Doctor's Answer
If his brother did not get along so well in school this boy would, no doubt, do much better there. Each is interested in the line in which he excels.

Now just telling him he ought to be interested, that he ought to study harder, or have better grades. See to it that every evening at the same time he reads aloud to you for at least half an hour from easy material. Go back and back until you find a book from which he can read successfully. If he misreads many words or hesitates frequently, you know the book is too hard. He must read only what he can read well. If you set him to reading alone, you won't be sure whether he does read or not. He may enjoy doing you read to him and then set him to read to you. Suggest no haste. Make him feel that all is going well.

Whether it is reading or any other subject observe the same principle. Help him find the kind of thing at which he can succeed. As he succeeds he will be interested and his interest will assure him more achievement. There is no motive like the motive of awareness of success.

Solving Parent Problems

Q. Of two youths, one who talks too much at the family meal and the other who talks too little or not at all, which is the bigger problem from the angle of personality and mental health?

A. The second.

Tony Biddle has been named minister to Greece. Every time Hitler moves, Biddle gets another bitter case. He now is our ambassador to Poland and Belgium and minister to Norway, the Netherlands, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Greece. Philadelphia's Tony is our only diplomat with seven portfolios and seven league boots. When the phone rings in the state department they say "It isn't from Biddle it's for him."

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

PURPOSE
Stay fast and true, be constant, brave and willing.
Cling to some purpose till the night descends.
Wear out by doing. Spring was meant for tilling
And life for living till the hour it ends.

Let not the mind grow lax and long for pleasure,
Let not the hand grow weary of its task.

The strength to do is man's superbest treasure,
And that in prayer is all a man should ask.

Sweet is the rest that comes to bodies weary,
And high the pride that follows purpose done.

Once rested, man finds care, free days turned dreary,
And would be tired once more and still go on.

Discuss Pact With Japan If Russia Falls
Observers Believe Japs May Turn Friendly
Japs Might Not Like Hitler As A Neighbor

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—If the Nazis completely finish off Russia there are observers who think Japan might flop over to a friendly compact with the United States and the rest of the democracies.

State department functionaries aren't ready to make it as a definite prediction yet, but I've heard it suggested by several of them, in close touch with the Oriental situation as something almost approaching probability.

Upon analysis, the surmise appears to have a certain amount of plausibility. Herr Hitler wouldn't be any particular Jap menace in total control of the European half of the Muscovite realm, but he'd be Nippon's pretty near neighbor if he invaded Siberia, and it's considered entirely unlikely that the Japs feel sure he'd be a good one.

Though the Russians had a bad government in the czar's days, and have had another at least equally bad under Joe Stalin, they never have been internationally very aggressive. True, they had a war with the Japs a generation ago, but the Japs began it and of course know it, even if they don't admit they do. Furthermore, they won't so the chances are that they're not much afraid of a Soviet grab at 'em. Contrariwise, when any grabbing looks practicable in eastern Asia, Japan's the power to try to take advantage of it.

So short, Russia's a country that generally is aggressed against, as by Napoleon, by Japan on the occasion above referred to, and now by Herr Hitler.

In objecting to American arms shipments to Vladivostok, the guess is made that Tokyo isn't so apprehensive that the arms will be used by the Russians in an attack on Nippon as that perhaps the Soviets will find 'em convenient to resist with should Japan take a notion to push into Siberian Soviet territory.

Nazis More Dangerous
It's reasoned that, from the Jap standpoint, the Nazis on the east-Asian seaboard, would be apt to be assessed as plenty more dangerous than Russia has been considered.

They ARE aggressive and predatory.

In the first place, they undoubtedly would foreclose the matter of-actively than the Russians against any Jap plans for future mainland grabbing.

Secondly, once solidly installed, it can't be strongly suspected in Japanese quarters that Nazi thrusts into Japanese continental holdings and maybe Nazi raids on the Mikado's home islands would follow.

Herr Hitler, to be sure, hasn't the navy to do any formidable invading by water, but he wouldn't need to. From end to end, the Jap archipelago is within an easy jump for the German Luftwaffe from such a base as, say, Vladivostok.

It's a safe bet, wouldn't it be able to fight off such a campaign. And just a single flight of a sizable bombing fleet would be sufficient to knock all the Mikado's fragile-built cities into pile of blazing kindling wood.

Oh, yes! It's a fact that the Nazis and Japans are allied.

So however, were the Nazis and the Russians, which didn't prevent Adolf from jumping unexpectedly into war with the latter. Observers draw the natural conclusion that Tokio can't have a cent's worth of sense's worth, to express it in Jap money, and a sen's got only a small fraction of the value of a copper penny of confidence in Nippon's pact with Berlin.

It's a line of argument that doesn't present the Japs in a very favorable light. It's to the effect that they're agin us and will stay so until and if they need us, to help protect 'em against Nazi meanness.

Ethics and Facts

Abstract ethics, though, scarcely signify in competition with practical considerations. We hated and despised the Communistic Russians while they were in semi-chaos with the Axis. Now we're hearing all sorts of things 'em all-out assistance. They rate darned nearly as a democracy for the present anyway.

Just so with the Japs. The gambling is that, if they decide it's to their interest to fall out with Herr Hitler, we and the British and such other democracies as may be available won't hug 'em too closely into motives. And it's agreed that, over on our side, they'll be a valuable acquisition.

In decency, we will, indeed, have to make some sort of a bargain with 'em relative to China, but if they're adequately scared of Adolf, maybe they'll be willing to acquiesce in it.

1842—William Barker Cushing, naval officer, at Delaford, Wis.

Foremost among his many exploits was the destruction of the Confederate ironclad "Albemarle" in the Roanoke river. Using a steam launch under the cover of darkness, he sank the Confederate vessel by exploding a spar-torpedo against her side. He attained the rank of commander at the exceptionally early age of 30.

1876—James Earle Fraser, sculptor, at Winona, Minn. Among his best known works are the bust of Theodore Roosevelt in the Senate Chambers and that of Alexander Hamilton in the Treasury building at Washington; the statue "Journey Through Life" in the Rock Creek cemetery, and an equestrian group, "The End of the Trail" at Waupun, Wis.

1879—Will Rogers, humorist and motion picture actor, at Oklah. Okla. He began his career as a rope-throwing cowboy on the vaudeville stage and rose to wealth and world fame as a humorist and political commentator in the homespun tradition of the old frontier.

Today a mining company is spending $5,000,000 to extract titanium, an element valuable for toughening steel from the same soil.

It is estimated that 20,000,000 tons of ore—titanium as well as iron—lie in the vicinity of that old Indian lake.

And now science will protect its "fire sticks" and "war birds" with the same material that the Indians used against their enemies.

Don't let us put ourselves on the back and pity the poor Indian.

As long as men kill each other civilization is still a long way off!

There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.—1 John 4:18.

Something tells us that a lot of people will say next March 15: "Look me up if you wish. I simply haven't got it and can't get it."

The World and the Mud Puddles

HOW LONG IS IT TO BE?

Most commonly held opinion in Washington is that it is only a matter of time until the United States is all the way in the war, even though Congress may never declare a state of war to exist.

President Roosevelt's order to the Navy to shoot on sight, places both the United States and the Axis in a position where it will be difficult for either side to withdraw without a loss of national face.

United States policy will be to avoid war with Japan as long as the Nipponese don't aid the Axis. Odds in Washington are that some sort of an agreement will be worked out with Japan and trade will be resumed on a more normal basis.

Nothing will be done about the Chinese situation and Uncle Sam will retain his "tend to you after Hitler" attitude. Basis for the belief that war may be avoided with Japan is the fact that German diplomacy sustained a sharp setback when United States ships carry aid to the Russians were allowed to reach Vladivostok. Most aid to Russia, however, will proceed through the Persian Gulf to spare the Japanese sensibilities and thereby minimize the possibilities of an "incident."

Washington's guesses on the duration of the war range from three to ten years. Some even suggest fifteen. Many recall that when Napoleon over-ran Europe, it was eight years before he was sent to St. Helena. But even then he was to return to France before he met his Waterloo.

Probe Crash Of Navy Bomber

Eleven Naval Airmen And Army Observer Lost Somewhere In Atlantic

NO INDICATION CRAFT SHOT DOWN

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—A thorough probe was expected to be launched today into the crash of a giant navy bomber somewhere in the Atlantic, taking the lives of 11 naval airmen and an army observer. The navy department announced during the night that with discovery of the wreckage of the two-motored flying boat missing since Sunday, it was found that all aboard had perished.

The cryptic naval announcement that the ship was "operating in the Atlantic ocean area" gave vent to speculation that it was on patrol duty in the navy's effort to drive the German "rattlesnakes" out of American defensive waters.

No details were given as to the probable cause of the crash. Officials insisted however that there was nothing to indicate that the craft might have possibly been shot down.

The 15-ton ship had a range of 4,000 miles at a cruising speed of more than 200 miles an hour, according to navy officials. Except for the presence of the army officer, it carried a normal wartime complement, including ordnance men or gunners.

Thaddeus Stevens School Choir Is Happy Over Award

There isn't a happier group in New Castle than the Thaddeus Stevens school choir.

The musical organization, comprised of 52 students, participated in Monday's Hallowe'en celebration. Approaching the judges' stand, the boys and girls sang "America" so well that the judges awarded the choir $10.

What are they going to do with the money? "We will use the money as a down payment on a victrola-radio combination," Miss Louise Davies, one of the faculty supervisors said. Miss Emma Gibbons is the other supervisor.

Stamps Should Be
Affixed To Mail
On Rural RoutesPostal Bulletin Urges That Rural Mail Patrons Cooperate In This Respect

In order to speed up collection and dispatching of mail from rural routes, the current postal bulletin urges that patrons of the rural area affix postage to mail that is to be left in the rural boxes for collection.

With bad weather coming on within a very short time, many delays will undoubtedly be encountered by the rural mail carrier, and every little help that the patrons can give will help to insure better service from their carrier.

Correct amount of postage stamps should be affixed to all first and third class mail that is left in the rural boxes in order that the carrier need not encounter delay by collecting the money and buying stamps and then placing them on each letter after returning to the post office.

Stir yourself! Do this for 30 days: take half a teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of water every morning, half an hour before breakfast. Don't miss a morning. AROUND
CITY HALL

It is not likely the city council will make any effort to fulfill the provisions of a state law which calls for the elimination of over-head traffic lights and substitution of the corner type lights, effective January 1. The cities throughout the state have the privilege of asking that they be permitted to continue operating lights now in service if finances of the cities will not permit their removal. The council has adopted the position the 1, the city is financially unable to make the changes, which would run into high figures and also believe the present over-head lights are more suitable than the corner type.

The Police Chiefs' association Bulletin of October 1, carried a police story from the New Castle News which in effect, said that the time is not too far distant when officers here may each carry pocket radios with which to receive messages from police headquarters while the patrolmen are patrolling beats. The story also told of the improvements in crime prevention installed here during the past few years.

Several false fire alarms were turned in from the Ray street district Sunday according to police officials who today stated that Mayor Charles B. Mayne had promised severe punishments to anyone caught turning false alarms in the future. According to city officials every time the fire equipment leaves a station it costs the taxpayers considerable money.

President's Health
Better Than Average

(International News Service)
BOSTON, Nov. 4. — President Roosevelt right now is in better physical condition than the average individual.

Authority for that statement is Surgeon General Admiral Ross T. McIntyre of the U. S. Navy, personal physician of the president, who arrived to attend a medical congress in Boston.

Asked about the president's health, Admiral McIntyre had this to say: "It always is hard to talk about a healthy man."

"For a man 59 years old the president is certainly in better physical condition than the average individual. If we can get enough breaks for him and get him away from stress and strain I see no reason why he should not be able to go along as he has for a great many years."

Declares Navy Already At War

South Dakota Senator Asks For Outright Repeal Of Neutrality Law

SAYS U. S. NOT NEUTRAL NOW

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Urging outright repeal of the neutrality act, Senator Chan Gurney (R) S. D., on Monday told the Senate that the United States navy already is at war.

"It is said that we should not arm merchant ships because we should use every possible means of avoiding entrance into a shooting war," Gurney declared.

"How can any logical man say that a navy, with orders to 'shoot on sight' is not waging war? Call it a defensive naval war if you will, but nonetheless it is our navy and therefore our war."

"One of our warships has been torpedoed in this war. Our seamen have been killed through the attacks of an enemy. Do any hesitate to name that enemy?"

The United States, Gurney charged, is no longer neutral. Thus, he said, Congress should throw away all semblance of hypocrisy and repeal, instead of merely revise, the neutrality act.

Arming ships and permitting them to enter combat zones — as provided in the pending bill — repeats major provisions of the law, he said, but emphasized that the entire act should go.

"This nation wants Hitler to be stopped, and we intend that he shall be stopped," exclaimed Gurney.

The short, stocky South Dakotan, who has broken with many of his midwestern colleagues on the neutrality act, made a bitter attack upon isolationism.

He charged that isolationists have sabotaged the national defense program. He issued a call for national unity.

It was reported at the hospital that the child, who had been visiting her grandmother, had run out into the street, at the corner of West State street and Sankey street, just as Mrs. Munnerlyn started her car, and the child was knocked down.

ESSAY CONTEST FOR HIGH SCHOOLS

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 4.—The executive committee of the State Association of Township Supervisors has announced that the association will sponsor another home rule essay contest for high school students in 1942.

H. A. Thomson, secretary of the state association, in announcing the action of the executive committee said that this year's contest will be on the same subject, "The Advantages of Home Rule and Local Government," and under rules similar to those used in last year's contest, but the state association has substantially increased the prizes to be awarded.

A necessity is something we reluctantly do without because we spend so much for little luxuries.

A man wants others to be as he is, unless he is conceited.

ESTIMATE 25,000 IN PARADE CROWD HERE

Marchers proceeded along East Washington street. Because of the crowd, the marchers were almost forced to march on the corner of East Washington and South Mill street. The parade moved south on Mercer and toward North Jefferson street and to the diamond. From that point, the scores of mummies paraded past the judges' stand on Mercer and Washington streets.

Route Changed
Originally, the parade was scheduled to turn up North Mercer street and disband on the corner of North and Mercer streets. Because it was almost impossible to clear a path at the intersection, the parade disbanded on Washington street between Mercer and South Mill.

The happy multitude was rewarded with an exceedingly colorful parade. Many patriotic costumes, in keeping with time, were quite noticeable. Cowboys, dragons, comedians, old maids, Indians, clever floats and whatnots made up a parade that pleased the crowd.

Even the mardi gras, held on Mercer street, between North and Falls streets, surpassed expectations. The block, which was transformed into a gaily bedecked "outdoor ballroom," was jammed from corner to corner. Quite a few persons got in the spirit of things and danced.

By midnight, the downtown sector commenced to acquire the quiet that is predominant at such an hour.

Major Prize Winners
Winners of major prizes: Buckeye Riding Stable (B. J. Voskuhl) grand prize; patriotic group first prize, Mrs. Paul DiDario, 210 South Lafayette street, Mrs. James Vitale, 105 North Wayne street, Mrs. Felix Florante, 231 South Cedar street, and Mrs. Paul Domenick, 15 West Cherry street; second prize, Albertha Jones, 360½ East Washington street, Mary Bunnell, 316½ Neshannock avenue and Anna O'Neil.

First prize group two, Mrs. John Hudak, Jr., 15 West Terrace avenue, and Sophie Blaz, 11 Terrace avenue; Mrs. Paul Bannon, 831 Lathrop street; second prize, first prize group three, Irene Stofick, 34 Ralph avenue and Mary Hudak, 15 Terrace avenue; Anthony Palmer, 116 Friendship street, Gloria Clifton, 25 East Reynolds street.

Children's group first prize, Thaddeus Stevens school choir, 32 students, under supervision of Misses Emma Gibbons and Louise Davies.

Over 400 Prizes
More than 400 prizes, with a cash value of approximately $600, were distributed. Approximately $25 worth of dimes, and funmakers were also given to children in the parade.

Members of the judges' committee included: L. G. Genkinger, H. T. Jones, John C. Wajert, Ingeborg Hallgren, Eva Bricker, J. L. Matthews, Alice Warner, Mary McBride, Jacob F. Rentz, N. Frew Book, Attorney Joseph Letz, Mrs. Ed Connerly, J. D. Alexander, Honorable Mayor Charles B. Mayne, J. Leon Fink, J. D. Reeber and William Morgan.

Five Bands
Five bands filled the air with snappy tunes that added immense gaiety to the event. The five bands which marched in the divisions included the American Legion band, Paton's band, Anthony Basile's band, Croton school band and Ellwood City Drum Corps.

Members of the city police and several members of the State Motor Police handled the throng quite efficiently.

A troop of Boy Scouts assisted the judges in passing out winning tickets.

Merchant groups of the city, sponsors of the occasion, are being showered with praise and justifiably so. The event, despite the immense crowd, was staged with the precision of a balometer.

Through the columns of The News, L. V. Davis, general chairman, thanks all those who helped to make the event the biggest and most successful in the history of the city.

MESSAGES FROM NAVY RECEIVED AT HOMES HERE

to notify you that your husband, Fred P. Zapasnik, shipfitter first class, U. S. Navy, has been rescued after the torpedoing of the U. S. S. Reuben James and was uninjured.

Signed C. W. Nimitz, Chief of Bureau of Navigation.

Upon receiving the message here, Zapasnik's family immediately forwarded the good news to Mrs. Zapasnik who resides in Boston with their two-year-old daughter.

Ninety-Five Lost
Taylor was among the 95 officers and seamen, who were lost after their ship was sunk while on patrol duty near Iceland. Of the 140 crewmen on the ship, 45 were rescued, eight of which number were injured.

Both local families have been anxiously awaiting word of the fate of the crew since the mishap occurred.

Zapasnik's family was overjoyed and a five-day nervous strain was broken when a messenger boy knocked on their door this morning and notified them that he had "good news from the Navy Department."

Besides his mother, Taylor is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Gladys Hackett, at home, Mrs. George DeWolf, Detroit, and Miss Elizabeth Taylor of Meadville; one brother, Herman Taylor resides at home, as does a niece, Miss Dorothy Hackett.

RADIO MIX-UP PROVES COSTLY IN ARMY MANEUVERS

(International News Service)
WITH THE 34TH DIVISION SOMEWHERE IN LOUISIANA.—Major Dewey Bear of Centerville, Ia., acting commander of the 168th Infantry's second battalion, was trying to talk to the 168th's commander, Lieut.-Colonel Harry Stedman of De Moines, on a walkie-talkie radio.

Instead of hitting connections with Colonel Stedman, Major Bear made connections with the enemy commander across the lines.

Said the enemy commander: "What shall I do, colonel, move back or hold tight?"

Replied Major Bear: "Better move back 1500 yards, the enemy is near."

Promptly, Major Bear moved the entire second battalion ahead into the position vacated by the enemy Blues.

Ask Newsboys To Sell National Defense Stamps

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Nov. 4.—John E. Person, president of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association, today summoned publishers and circulation managers to an emergency meeting at Harrisburg November 10 to draft plans to mobilize newsboys to sell U. S. defense savings stamps.

The association pointed out that Henry Morgenthau, Jr., secretary of the treasury, believes success of the stamp plan would be assured if the nation's 500,000 newsboys became salesmen.

Calling upon Pennsylvania publishers to support the plan, Person explained that the mobilization of newsboys to sell defense stamps was inaugurated by the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin with the approval of the U. S. treasury.

"Were you missed when a canvass of Community Chest pledges was conducted?"
"If you were and you call the Community Chest office, 2572, one of the committee women who are working for the success of the movement will quickly call upon and receive your pledge."

The foregoing was an announcement made today by the Community Chest in view of probability that someone may unintentionally have been missed when the canvass was under way.

Will Have Roles In School Play

Jack McCullough And Gerald Potter To Be In "Going On Seventeen" Cast

Gerald Potter Jack McCullough

Jack McCullough is cast for the role of "Buddy" Carhart in the senior high school play, "Going On Seventeen". It is Buddy's age together with his importance in the plot that has given the name to this modern comedy by Hilda Manning. In the course of the evening Buddy will be seen disrupting the household while he tries to write an editorial for The Harrisville Town Topics, which exists to date only in his own lively dream world; concurrently falling in love and falling out; and finally playing sleuth to a bank clerk who has embezzled a large sum and thrown the suspicion on Buddy's father, the bank president. "Mac" has the stellar role of the play.

Gerald Potter is the wolf in sheep's clothing who nearly wrecks the happiness of Buddy's family. As Tom Williams, "Jerry" is the object of Buddy's successful efforts at detecting the villain. The role of Tom Williams is that of an apparently model young man who is not what he seems to be. To represent the dual personality of Tom Williams is Gerald Potter's exacting stage problem.

Both "Mac" and "Jerry" are well-known members of the senior class that graduates in January. Both are members of the Senior Hi-Y. Otherwise their choice of school activities is quite different. Young Potter has been associated in various capacities with the student government organizations: as hall monitor, member of the pre-session squad and representative on the student council. He is at present on the staff of "The Ne-Ca-Hi", the commencement publication. Jack McCullough's leisure time is taken up with musical interests. He is a member of the school band and also of its orchestra and has been chosen as a contestant for the Music and Porensic league's annual competitions.

Jack McCullough is the son of Mrs. Mary McCullough of North Mercer street. Gerald Potter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Potter of East Washington street.

In one of today's new C/P—Certified Performance—Gas ranges you can broil in 3 different ways. One is the searing method, used so often for rare steaks. You simply set the heat control at "high." The meat from one to three inches from the flame.

Then there is the constant temperature method approved by food authorities. Heat control is set at "high," meat placed from three to five inches from the flame. This gives you a medium or well-done steak with minimum shrinkage.

3
The third method permits you to place the meat close to the flame and to broil at between 350° and 500°. This method can be used when you are broiling at the same time you bake. It gives a minimum of shrinkage and either a medium or well-done steak.

He was a cowboy—a plain man. But he was a great American because he thought straight.

Let all Americans in THESE times recall how a man of the people became the critic and confidant of princes and presidents. Will Rogers read the newspapers.

Will had a great ability which YOU can have, too, if you'll do as he did. He read FACTS—and the same kind of facts are in the papers today, as they were in his time—the acts of Congress, the fights, the fires, the prices, all the news of the day.

He read OPINIONS also. What this or that man THOUGHT about the facts. He read the urgings and persuasions of others, seeking to make "converts" or "customers" or "members"—the many sincere beliefs and opinions which ALL newspapers worthy of the name MUST print.

Then, armed with the facts and the opinions of the day, Will Rogers did what every man who deserves to be called a free citizen MUST DO. HE MADE UP HIS OWN MIND.

Will Rogers never complained that the papers were unreliable or one-sided. HE found enough good information in them to make himself loved, respected and listened to

East High Will Try To Throttle New Castle Streak

Game Will Be Played At Taggart Stadium On Friday Night, Weather Permitting

LOCALS SEEKING TENTH STRAIGHT

New Castle and Youngstown East High will play their annual grid game at Taggart Stadium on Friday night (weather permitting), it was announced at Senior High today. The kickoff is slated for 8 o'clock.

The two teams have met six times since 1935 and New Castle has won five and lost one, the lone East win over the "Red Hurricanes" having been in 1937 by a score of 7 to 0 on a long pass that White, a colored boy took in the dying moments of a hard fought game.

Fairly Successful

East High has had a fairly successful season to date, losing to Youngstown South and Campbell Memorial, the latter team eking out a 7 to 0 win. East has victories over Sharon, Ursuline, Struthers, and Woodrow Wilson of Youngstown. East last Saturday tied Rayen High, 0 to 0.

New Castle High's mud splattered squad resumed practice on Monday afternoon and were given only a light drill. Despite the fact that East High has lost two and tied one, the New Castle team is looking for a tough battle on Friday night. East has always played good ball against New Castle.

New Castle High will be seeking its tenth straight win of the season against East High. An undefeated and untied record is the aim of the Bredenbaugh coached eleven this season and they do not intend to let East High spoil it.

STILL ROLLING NICKELS

Carnegie Tech students are still rolling nickels, dimes and quarters into their special fund to give financial assistance to worthy football material. To date, they have a little more than $800 in the kitty, and the campaign is still going on. Alumni members, too, have held several meetings since the students launched the move to back their team, and general expectations are that the ex-grads will at least match the contributions of the student body.

Junior Highs Play Monday

Franklin High Trying To Figure Out How To Stop Knight

The junior high school football championship of New Castle will be the prize that two fine grid teams—Ben Franklin and George Washington—will battle for on Monday at Taggart stadium at 8 o'clock.

It will no doubt be one of the best games of the year, due to the fact that each team is laying an undefeated record on the line. Franklin high's only blemish has been a tie with the Sharon junior high team.

Can They Stop Knight?
Washington will be without the services of their coach, Arthur Alexander, who is recuperating from a severe attack of pneumonia in the Jameson hospital. Bill Klee will direct the North Hillers. Heach Coach Austin Cowmeadow and his assistants, Bill Wallace and George Bunder, have a tough task ahead and have planned a stiff drill for today.

How to stop "Superman" Knight is the question in the Franklin camp. Knight, the colored sensation Washington halfback, expects to have a good afternoon against Franklin, and if he can shake away from the pack it will be goodbye until the goal line is reached. Knight is a great climax running and the leading junior high scorer in western Pennsylvania.

The game will be played partly as a benefit for Coach Arthur Alexander of Washington High to help him defray hospital expenses. The admission will be 10 cents for students and 25 cents for adults.

Rate Camilli Most Valuable

Dodger First Baseman Gets Most Valuable Player Award, Reiser Second

By JACK MAHON
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Those famous bums of Brooklyn, the most popular vagabonds in sport, were tops in their league at the end of the 1941 season and, an announcement from the Baseball Writers Association of America today reveals, three of them were rated the most valuable players in the National League. Led by the famous rock of flatbush, First Baseman Dolf Camilli who was voted the league's most valuable player for 1941, the guys from the Gowanus swept first, second and third places in the national poll. Center Fielder Pete Reiser finished second and Fitcher Whitlow Wyatt, third.

Camilli received a total of 300 points, including 19 votes of a possible 24 for first place; two votes for second place; one each for third and fourth place and one vote ranked him tenth. This was the second largest total ever accorded one player since the new rating system was introduced by the writers in 1938. Bucky Walters of the Reds polled 303 in '39.

Dodgers Do Well
Reiser, the kid who played only his second year on the big time this summer, polled 183 points and Wyatt 151.

Trailing the Bums, whose sweep was unprecedented in the poll, were Jimmy Brown of the Cardinals; Elmer Riddle of the Reds; Ernie White of the Cardinals; Kirby Higbe of the Dodgers; Johnny Hopp of the Cardinals; Johnny Mize of the Cardinals and Dixie Walker of the Dodgers—the Bums taking five of the first ten places compiled.

Grove City High Given Ovation

GROVE CITY, Nov. 4.—A roving ovation was tendered the high school football squad in chapel assembly yesterday, in recognition of the second district 10 Class A football championship in two years. The Grovers repeated last year's championship by handing unbeaten Sharpsville an 18-0 defeat in the final game Saturday.

In a near perfect season, the high school eleven lost its opener to New Castle, 6-0, and then won eight consecutive games, including among its victims Bradford and Oil City.

ROSE MAKES RECORD
ST. PAUL, Nov. 4.—Rose Schneider, member of the St. Paul Women's Bowling league, swept into a national season's record here when she rolled games of 246, 255 and 201 for a 702 total. Her score passes up the 697 total rolled in early October by Gladys Light of Milwaukee.

DON'T HUNT IN PARKS
Watchmen in the various parks owned by the city are watching for persons who might attempt to shoot some of the wild game in the parks which have been called "no hunting zones." Councilman Alexander said today.

Still, a pretty one is pretty in cotton, and silk never beautified a pipestem or piano leg.

Course on a Golf Course

These co-eds of St. Petersburg, Fla., Junior college do this sort of thing as a matter of course—on the golf course. It is part of the curriculum. Two hours twice weekly are devoted to the game of golf. It helps the girls learn poise, teaches them how to concentrate (the game can't be said for the spectators) and besides, the dean says, it is healthful exercise.

SPORTS WORLD RAMBLINGS

What's new in sports today?

With the pigskin season on its last legs in many of the smaller colleges, basketballs are already making their appearance around the campuses. Grover Washabaugh, major dome of Westminster College, will check over his material this "m." The Titans will limber up daily. The team will be very, very smooth and perhaps a bit stronger than the classy 1940 edition. . . .

A private yesterday, a corporal today, that's army life. That's what happened to the military career of Filbert Nocera, the ex-New Castle high-Slippery Rock star athlete. Corporal Nocera is stationed at Camp Wheeler, Macon, Ga. He is affiliated with Company D 12th Training Battalion, Second Platoon, in case some of his friends would like to drop him a line. . . .

Now that the home season is over, it can be told, Shenango Township high, Lawrence County's 1941 Class B champion, has not dropped a contest on its home lot in four seasons. . . . And Ted Staph and Pete Moran, the team's center and halfback respectively, are honor students. Moran also does a bit of amateur fighting on the side. . . .

At least three of the remaining undefeated collegiate powers should wind up hostilities without a black mark. Minnesota, with Nebraska, Iowa and Wisconsin left, shouldn't be having any trouble whatsoever, considering the showings made by the trio. Fordham should breeze through handily. Pitt, St. Mary's and N. Y. U. must be confronted by the Rams.

Duke University, playing a soft schedule all the way, hardly figures to lose to Davidson, North Carolina or North Carolina State. Texas University's major hurdle is Texas A. & M. Baylor, T. C. U. and Oregon also grace the Texas card. The Aggies face S. M. U. Rice, Texas and Washington of St. Louis and figure to drop at least one fray, that one to Texas. . . .

In our own backyard, Duquesne University is well on its way to a perfect slate. Mississippi State, to be met in Pittsburgh on November 15, will be the Dukes' top hurdle. St. Mary's, to be played this week, doesn't figure to halt Duquesne's march. Minnesota, Texas, Duke, Fordham and Texas are almost cinch bets to finish with unblemished slates. . . .

CONN SECOND
The boys along cauliflower row say that Lem Franklin, Cleveland's outstanding heavyweight, will be ranked above Pittsburgh's Billy Conn in the next NBA ratings.

Floyd Wise Is Husking King

Prairie Center, Illinois Farmer Wins National Corn Husking Championship

By WILLIAM L. COLLINS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

TONICA, Ill., Nov. 4.—Tired but "darned happy."

That just about summed up how 31-year-old Floyd Wise of Prairie Center, Illinois, felt today after his victory in the national cornhusking championship yesterday, in which he out-shucked 21 other farm stalwarts from eleven states.

Wise, a bachelor, weighed in with 45,371 bushels for the 80-minute test, and just edged out the man who was runner-up to him last week in the Illinois championship, Leland Klein of Metamora in Woodford county. Klein's total was only 155 bushels less than that of Wise, his friend and neighbor.

The new champion, obviously weary, had to steel himself for what was noticeably a trial for him—the cheers and well-wishes of the huge crowd of between 75,000 and 100,000 who crowded onto the fields of the Theodore Schaefer farm, two miles west of Tonica, for the big show.

Will Take It Easy

His program for today, tomorrow and possibly longer, he said, will be to take it easy.

"Got more shuckin' to do on my own place," he explained, "but guess I'll wait until Wednesday, maybe Thursday."

For his victory, Wise won $100, but more important than the money to every winner of the national is the achievement of a goal which is to every corn shucker what the pitcher's mound in a world series would be to any kid ball player. Klein, tall, slim and 23, received $50 for second place. Third place and $25 went to Evely Carlson of Madrid, Ia.; fourth and $15 to Donley Martin of Buffalo, Minn., and fifth place and $10 to Cameron Krauel of Gray, Ia. They shucked 44,351, 43,255 and 41,899 bushels, respectively.

In winning the national title, Wise fell short of the mark of 50,996 bushels which he shucked to win the Illinois crown last week, but the higher record, which bested any former national or state mark, was attained on a more productive field than the one selected for the national contest.

PLAN NEXT FISTIC SHOW
Jefferson Athletic club is arranging to conduct its next amateur boxing show in The Arena, November 19, according to Matchmaker Thomas Leach. Amateurs from Pittsburgh and Ohio cities will be paired with New Castle boxers.

PIRATES' PARTY SOON
The Pirates, incidentally, will throw their annual dinner and free-for-all for tri-state news and radio men on November 13.

Titans Prepare For Grove City Game

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Nov. 4.—With their first "winning football season" in 13 years assured, the Westminster Titan gridgers are pointing this week for the No. 1 game on the Blue and White schedule, Grove City College, this Saturday. It will be homecoming for the Titan school.

With almost half a century of football competition behind the two teams, the Grove City-Westminster contest represents one of the oldest rivalries in the district.

In 42 games played by the two colleges since 1893, Westminster has won 16, tied three, and lost 23. For several years in the 1890's, the two schools played on a home-and-home basis, within the season, usually culminating with a Thanksgiving day contest. Several of the games were played in New Castle because of the district interest in the fierce rivalry of the colleges.

On paper, Westminster has a slight edge over their Mercer County opponents. The Titans have won four and lost two, defeating Tech 19-13, Hiram 20-0, Geneva 7-0, and Juniata 27-12; and have dropped games to Thiel 14-0 and Slippery Rock 6-0.

Grove City has won two, lost one, and tied one. The Grovers defeated Allegheny 13-0, and Hiram 19-0, tied Slippery Rock 0-0, and lost to Geneva 14-7.

The Titans have shown the most offensive power, with 73 points scored in six games to Grove City's 39 points in four games. Not a single opposition touchdown this year has been scored on scrimmage plays through the Titan line. All counters have come through the air, with the exception of two returns of punts for touchdowns, one by Tech and one by Juniata.

New Castle, Titans In Major Conflicts

"Hurricane" Seeks Tenth Straight Win; Grovers To Face Westminster

New Castle high's battle with Youngstown East and Westminster College's pandemonium with Grove City College highlighted this week's local pigskin warfare.

The undefeated and untied "Hurricane" harvester, riding the crest of a nine-game streak and only two victories away from a perfect season, is huddled back at Taggart stadium mapping out plans for Friday night's clash with the Oilheons. The tilt, booked to start at 8 o'clock, will probably draw the top congregation of the season.

Grover Washabaugh's Titans, losers of only one clash thus far, bump up against Grove City Saturday afternoon at New Wilmington in the annual homecoming day embroglio. The Grovers shape up as one of the smoothest units turned out in several seasons.

Ellwood City bids farewell to the autumn sport by entertaining Beaver Falls high, Friday night. The game should be one of the scrappiest and one of the most thrilling of the campaign.

Bessemer high performs under the mazdas, facing Rochester high on Friday night in the valley town. Shenango Township high, 1941 Lawrence County Class B champion, rests this week. The Wildcats end their season on Friday, November 14, encountering Greenville, away from home.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—Sixty-three out-of-town teams accepted reservations recently for the forty-second annual American Bowling Congress tournament to be staged here March 3 to May 4. This brought the total up to 3,843 teams.

Fordham Headed For Sugar Bowl

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Indice today were that the Fordham Rams have received a "feeler," if not an actual invitation, to participate in the annual Sugar Bowl game, January 1, at New Orleans.

The presence here of A. N. Goldberg, president of the Sugar Bowl Association, stirred bowl talk, but neither Goldberg nor officials of Fordham would clarify the situation.

Goldberg said he is on a trip to confer with "prospective bowl teams." It was generally understood, however, that he is not in New York to negotiate with the hapless New York University Violets or the in-an-out Columbia Lions.

Fordham routed Purdue, 17 to 0, last week to win its fifth game of the season. Unbeaten and untied, the Rams are rated overwhelming favorites to bowl over their remaining foes, Pittsburgh, St. Mary's and N. Y. U.

Scout Dinner Here Monday

President Of National Association Of Foremen's Clubs Is Speaker

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 4.—There is no greater investment offered in the world today than "Men In The Making," give some boy the lift he needs and the reward will be a satisfaction that cannot be equalled in a life well spent. A. C. Horrocks, public relations director of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company and president of the National Association of Foremen's clubs, declared last night at the annual Boy Scout dinner.

Arranged by the Ellwood District council, the affair was held at the St. Agatha church and was well attended by scouts, sponsoring troop committeemen, parents and civic club members. The speaker's very thoughtful and challenging talk was received with great enthusiasm.

The need for a background of tolerance and understanding was stressed as the important thing that boys need to be taught. When those qualities are instilled in young men, there can be no fears, no regrets, come the day that a new world order is established.

America has been endowed with four great M's, money, material, machinery and manpower, and the future of them rests with manpower. Hitler has human slaves, American has mechanical slaves, you can help make the choice for "American Men Of Tomorrow" by sharing your heritage with today's boys, the speaker concluded.

Rev. Fr. E. F. Rowan, of the St. Monica church, Wampum, gave the invocation and group singing was led by Rev. A. M. Stevenson with Miss Marjorie Streeter as accompanist.

"The Outing In Scouting" was shown by excellent moving pictures of Camp Thompson shown by camp director, Howard B. Gills, and his assistant, Harold Barry.

The regular November meeting followed with reports being given by the various committee chairmen concerning the work of the past year.

Officers for the District Council for the new year were then chosen, being: president, W. Boyd Barrett; vice president, Erle B. Yahn; and district commissioner, Elden Daner.

Members at large were named as follows: J. Ellis Bell, H. M. Bradley, Ralph Conner, Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck, Clyde Gibson, Howard Gills, Clyde B. Houk, W. E. Mitchell, Gerald Newton, Rev. B. G. Shelton and E. T. Alsler, the last two of Wampum.

Mr. Barrett in accepting stated that he would like for the new year: increased troop membership, organization of 2 new troops, and several cub packs.

Legal Notice

In the Court of Common Pleas of Lawrence County
In the matter of the petition of Kermit Roudabush and Grace Bruce Roudabush, his wife, for a rule on John Bruce and others, their heirs or assigns, to bring judgment, at No. 16 December Term, 1941, M. D. Notice is hereby given to John Bruce, Wilson Bruce, Riley Bruce, Alexander Bruce, William Bruce, Mary Duff, Emily Turner, Sarah Bruce, Jane Baird, Elizabeth Bruce, Miriam Bruce, Zella Jones, Erna Miller, Gladys Bruce, their heirs or assigns, and all other persons interested, that the petition of Kermit Roudabush and Grace Bruce Roudabush, his wife, was presented in the Court of Common Pleas of Lawrence County at the above number and term, setting forth that they are the owners in possession of a parcel of land situate in Scott Township, Lawrence County, Pa., bounded and described as follows: Beginning at the southeast corner thereof in the center of Brook Road, known as the East-Brook Road, which extends from the E. E. Highway to East Cooper N. 6° 17' E. 258.2 feet to a point; thence N. 88° 10' W. 104 feet to a point; thence N. 88° 10' W. 104 feet to a point; thence by land of Thomas Cooper and lands of Walters S. 85° 13' E. 114.8 feet to a point; thence S. 84° 30' E. 242.4 feet to a point; thence S. 84° 30' E. 636 feet to a point; thence S. 84° 30' E. 200 feet to a point; thence S. 4° 35' W. 1964.8 feet to the center of the aforementioned public road; thence N. 84° 20' W. by the center line of said road, a distance of 1340 feet to the place of beginning; containing in area 112.87 acres by measurement. That according to 30 abstract of title attached to said petition and marked "Exhibit B," said above named parties, their heirs or assigns, together with certain other persons known to the petitioners, have an apparent outstanding interest in certain portions of the above described premises, by virtue of an apparent gap in the title from George Bruce's heirs to Hiram Bruce and from George Bruce's heirs and Hiram Bruce's heirs to Joseph Bruce. That none of said parties above named to whom this notice is directed have been in possession of said premises for a period of twenty-one years next preceding the filing of this petition. Whereupon, the Court granted a rule upon those parties to whom this notice is directed, ordering the Sheriff of Lawrence County to advertise once a week for six weeks in the New Castle News, which rule is returnable the first Monday of April, 1942.
M. M. INGHAM, Sheriff.

Many Can't Recognize Poison Ivy Vines Here

It is amazing to know that a large number of people do not know the poison ivy vine, and what a discomfort it brings to a victim afflicted by it.

During this summer, Owen Fox has received many inquiries on this subject.

He states that this plant, the poisonous crawler, lurks among the beautiful shrubs and plants that grow in woods and hedges. Like many other undesirable things, it persists in mungling with the good things of earth.

Although the season is over for its foliage, Mr. Fox says that there is still, in the woods, where a person prowls about, the danger of coming in contact with the snake-like vine. Even when walking through poison ivy, the oil of this vine comes in contact with shoes, and perhaps within four or five days afterward while lacing the shoes, the skin of the wearer may become irritated.

The oft made remark, "I am immune to poison ivy," Mr. Fox says is not true, as there is no person immune from this troublesome vine, for sooner or later, contact with it will bring serious results. The skin thus affected, to some extent, is worse than being scalded with hot water. The oil from poison ivy getting into an open sore, is quite serious, and results in much agony.

At this season of the year, the vine carries a very light orange colored berry. This berry is coated with a light film of wax which protects the berry, so that when it drops to the ground it will grow. If by any chance the wax is removed, the berry shrivels and dies.

Mr. Fox states that, for every evil thing that is upon this growing earth, there is something useful and worthwhile here to erase it. In this instance it is the black cat chica-

dee. These birds, if they do no more good than by eating off the wax covering of the poison ivy berry causing it to shrivel up and die, thus cutting down the plant's propagation, the chickadee has wrought a good work.

He says it is not wise to handle the vines growing in the woods, if not quite familiar with all of them. This poison ivy vine carries three leaves, and may easily be confused with the four leaf Virginia creeper sometimes used for decorations.
